PART 6 >>> Data Protection Notice for new Members

(Pursuant to the Data Protection and Telecommunications Legislation)

PLEASE READ THESE NOTES AND SIGN BELOW TO SAY THAT YOU ACCEPT THE CONTENTS OF THIS NOTICE AND FOR US TO ACCEPT YOU IN TO MEMBERSHIP

The union has statutory obligations to collect and keep data in order to perform the functions of a Trade Union.

The union will use your information together with other information for administration, offering or providing member benefits and services to you and your dependants, and in relation to the Journal, circulars, negotiations, representation, legal services, welfare benefits, financial services, education and training, health and safety issues, elections (statutory and non statutory), ballots for industrial action and other action, goods, products, and/or statistical profiling and sensitive data, including that relating to health, issues, trade union membership and racial origin where we consider appropriate. We will also disclose your information to our service providers and agents for these purposes.

We may share information with organisations and others who are our partners. We or they may contact you by mail, telephone, sms, fax, email, circular, notice board or via the branch structure to let you know about any services or information that we may wish to impart.

You have the right to ask for a copy of your information (for which we may charge a small fee, currently up to £10.00) and to correct any inaccuracies. To make sure we follow your instructions and carry out our functions correctly, or for training of our staff, we may monitor or record communications.

When we give you or others information about another person we confirm that they have appointed us to act for them, by consent by endeavouring to notify them of their rights and our obligations in this regard, where positive consent is not practicable, including in relation to sensitive data and to receive on their behalf any data protection notice.

We may keep your information for a reasonable period to contact you about our services.

This union is part of and affiliated to the TUC.

Should you wish your information NOT to be given to other organisations for direct mailing purposes please tick the box

Following admittance the member concerned will be sent a welcome pack which will include the Society's rule book, a membership badge and card.

By making this application to join ASLEF, if admitted to membership, I agree to abide by the Rules of the Society.
